Another CAD Manager Newsletter You Need to Read!

I keep recommending you read his articles, so go ahead and subscribe to his newsletter already! Subscribe to Robert Green's CAD Manager Newsletter Now!

Robert's July 22nd article addresses The Rising Resistance to Cloud-Based CAD and he hits all the important points. This is the part of the whole concept that makes me so nervous…

> *This centralized model of CAD use obviously benefits the software and cloud vendors greatly (because it allows them to charge for their software and servers on an ongoing basis), but it also gives them ultimate control over your CAD system – they can disconnect you from your applications and data unless you keep paying them.
