

That CAD Girl

Frequently Asked Questions

Does That CAD Girl have a “team”? Or is it really just you?

I like to tell people that when I came up with my company name I didn't leave myself a lot of room for expansion!

Until about 2020, it was just me on “the payroll” of That CAD Girl, although I had several people, like Jeremy Taylor, who helped out on hardware and other specialties from time to time.

Now, Claire DiBlasi is my right-hand (and half my brain) who is taking care of most of the software sales – leaving me more time for training and tech support and other technical questions related to sales.

Hannah Rowsey has also come on board in 2023 and helps keep your That CAD Girl Customer Portal up-to-date with maintenance reports and serial numbers.

At this point, I suppose we're Those CAD Girls... and we're having fun with it!
