That CAD Girl

Frequently Asked Questions

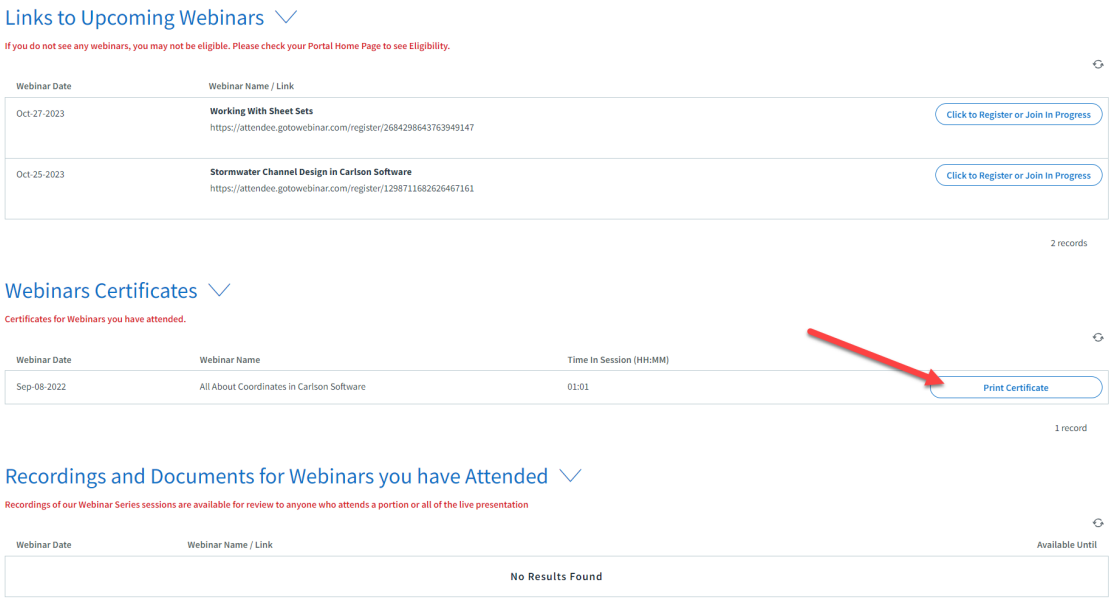

Does That CAD Girl training qualify for PDH/CEU/continuing education credit?

Maaayyybbeee…

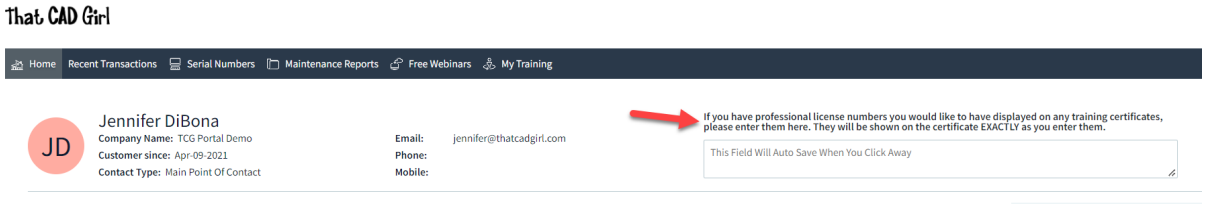

That CAD Girl is an approved provider of continuing education credit for the THE NORTH CAROLINA BOARD OF EXAMINERS FOR ENGINEERS AND SURVEYORS so anyone licensed in NC should have no problem.

For those out-of-state who attend webinars or other online training, we do provide “Certificates of Attendance” for each session. We also archive recordings of all training (technology willing!) and are happy to provide access to these for proof of training and auditing.

Links to past or upcoming training sessions and your Certificates of Attendance can be found on your That CAD Girl Customer Portal.

Pro-Tip! You can add your professional license numbers to your Home Screen to have them displayed on your Certificate!
