Jennifer,

Carlson Software intends to exercise Section 3.2 [Dealer Termination] clause with Carlson CAD Solutions and That CAD Girl. Since That CAD Girl hasn't officially been an active dealer since July 11, 2024, (as per your decision) this is just a formal letter to reiterate the end of that relationship permanently. This cancelation will go into effect January 6, 2024 to give you time to close out any other sales you may have.

3.2 Termination. Either Party may terminate this Agreement at any time upon written notice with or without cause. Under no circumstances does either Party agree that this Agreement or their relationship may be extended for any term absent a written agreement expressly to that effect. Any termination hereunder shall be in addition to any other remedy either Party may have at law or in equity.

Carlson Software wishes you nothing but success in your future endeavors.

Jennifer: Bruce, Butch and I had a meeting about the future of both your companies with Carlson Software. We feel like it's in the best interest of Carlson Software to dissolve our relationship with you as a dealer.

I have a cancelation letter attached which is effective January 6, 2025. Bruce asked that you please do not contact him by text, call or email, as he will not be available to you or anyone from your company from this time forward. All questions/concerns that you may have need to come through me.

Carlson Software wishes you nothing but success in your future endeavors.

Thank You
